

TeamViewer

Business Activation

Note

The activation process for the business license has changed with TeamViewer 13 and aligned with the process for the other license types. The license is now linked to your TeamViewer account. Thus, your license needs only to be activated on your TeamViewer account and doesn't have to be activated locally anymore. For the licensed use of TeamViewer, you need to be logged-in with your account.

1 How to activate your Business license:

Your invoice contains a brief introduction. The process is explained in more detail here.

- (1) Install and start TeamViewer on your Computer: Download now
- (2) Read the brief instructions on how to activate your Business license
- (3) Activate your license: Activate now. A license number is not needed, however you will find it on your invoice.
- (4) Log in to "Computers & Contacts" with your e-mail address and password

- Install and open TeamViewer on your computer: Download Now
- Click the 'Activate now' link in the activation email you received from TeamViewer. The TeamViewer Management Console will then open on your computer's Internet browser.
- Log in with your existing account or create a new account.

- After logging-in, you are authorized to start remote connections.

Note

You can check the activation via Help -> About TeamViewer.

It should say License: Free and Account License: Business

This is correct as the Business license is activated on your account and not locally.

Version: 13.0.50!
You are receiving
Date: Nov 24 20:
TeamViewer ID:

License: Free

Account License: Business
